

Roosevelt High School
Summer Opportunities Bulletin 2013
(Updated when I can between Feb-June)
Updated 1/28/2013

In Many Cases: A Successful Summer Experience Depends on How Well You Plan Now!
Good Luck!

Please let me know if you run into a link that no longer works. It is a big job.
We think all should be working now.

Reminder: If you are planning to get high school credit for any of these experiences that offer legitimate accreditation, please see your Counselor for an Equivalency Form Agreement before you enroll in the class.

- If you are ambitious and want an educationally enriched experience, try one of these.
- If you have failed a class and want to make something up, try one of the summer schools.
- If you have to go away for the summer and live with another parent, there can be a summer school at the local accredited high school. Have your parent inquire.
- Contact colleges and schools if no contact info has been given.
- Contact any college and inquire as to a summer high school experience. Let the Counseling Office know if you find ones that are not on this list.
- Many specialized experiences are intended for sophomores going in to their junior year, or juniors going to be seniors but not limited to that. Read/investigate carefully!

TYE Seattle, the local chapter of the TYE global program, focuses on fostering entrepreneurship in youth and helps them discover the rewards and challenges of becoming an entrepreneur. As part of the TYE educational program, students participate in a Business Plan Competition.

The program kicks off with an intensive 8 week training session taking place between October and November 2013. Students will be attending five to seven classes, taught by local business leaders and successful entrepreneurs. The focus of these sessions will be on learning the basics of business, such as marketing, accounting, finance and law as related to small business.

Early in 2014 working in small groups each led by a mentor, students will bring their own ideas to life by creating a business plan, and presenting at the TYE Seattle business plan competition. The winners will get the opportunity to compete in the Global TYE business challenge competing with students from around the world a grand prize of $25,000. The winning team is honored at the 'Entrepreneur of the Year Award' black tie gala event hosted by Ernst & Young every year in Seattle.

- Applications are currently being accepted for TYE Seattle 2013-14 program.
- The application can be downloaded at the TYE website:

<http://seattle.tie.org/tye>.

- Application deadline is about May 27th, 2013.
- There will be no more than 25 students accepted into the program.
